7:00 pm - You will need to be horseback and ready to ride in the Grand Entry that starts at 7:30pm. As soon as you ride in the Grand Entry you will be staged to enter the arena again and be introduced during the presentation of the colors.

During every performance the contestants will be asked to ride out in the back of the pickup that delivers the barrels for the barrel racing event. Also you will be assisting children in the arena during the nightly calf scramble.

Friday June 28, 2019

8:00 am –SHARP with horses warmed up and ready to start the horsemanship competition. The reigning Queen will set the pattern, followed by the queen contestants. Then the reigning Little Miss will set the reigning pattern follow by the Little Miss contestants pattern. After each contestant does their pattern they will stay mounted and be directed to walk to the judge’s staging area. Little Miss contestants will not be required to dismount.

10:00am – Brunch will be served for the contestants and parents in the Bowie Community Center. After eating the contestants will be directed to the judge’s staging area for the judges to ask personality and rodeo questions. NO PARENTS OR COACHES are allowed in this area.

2:15 pm – All contestants will attend the Pioneer Reunion Royalty and Crowning which will be held at the Bowie High School Cafeteria located at 341 US Hwy. 287 Bowie, Texas. This is not a judged event just a community service. You will be asked to introduce yourself and give a brief statement about yourself.

7:00 pm – Repeat of Thursday night.

Saturday June 29, 2019

10:00 am – Park at the corner of Pecan & Lindsey Street downtown Bowie to ride in parade. It starts at 10:30 am.

ASAP after the parade please return to the rodeo grounds to help with the hamburger feed which is held in the west hall of the Bowie Community Center. The contestants will be serving. You will be allowed to eat after everyone has been served at no charge. After this event the contestants will go directly to the center hall of the BCC to assist with the frog jumping, turtle race and the pet parade.

7:00 pm- Repeat of Thursday and Friday nights with the coronation being during after you have all been introduced and visiting royalty is asked to leave the arena.

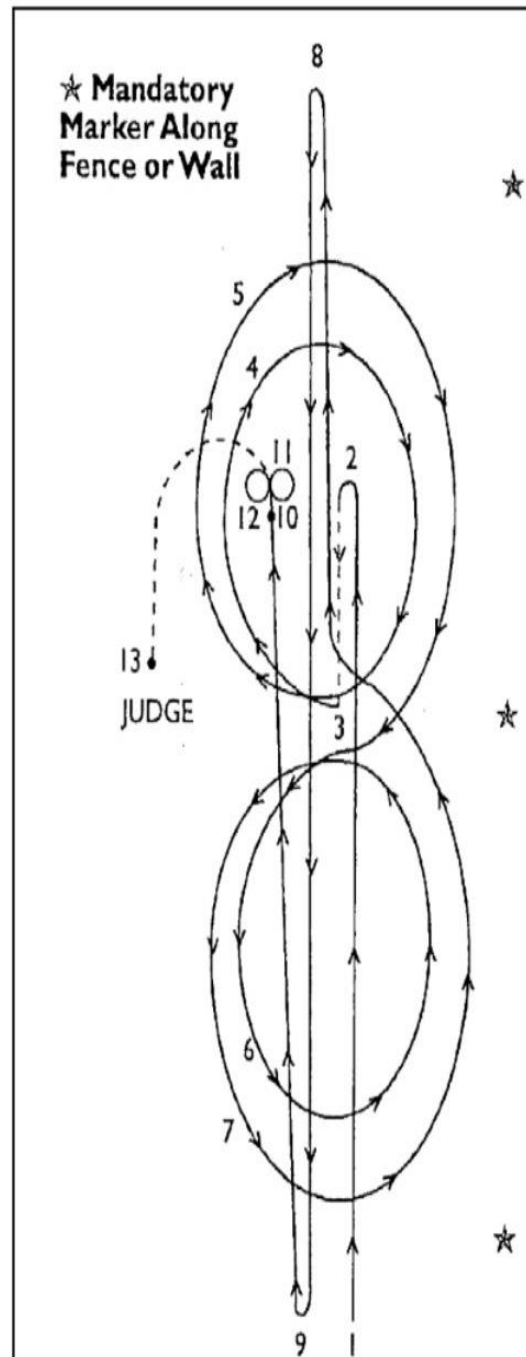

PLEASE REMEMBER EVERYTHING MAY NOT GO EXACTLY AS PLANNED THAT’S WHY THIS IS TENTATIVE....

The arena or plot should be approximately 50 feet by 150 feet.

The ride pattern follows:

Enter the arena and approach starting position.

1. Run with speed past the center marker.
2. Stop and back up the center of the pattern.
3. Settle the horse for approximately ten seconds.
4. Start the lope. The circles should be made inside the end markers.
5. Ride two circles to the right: the first circle should be small and ridden at a slow speed; the second circle should be large and ridden at a fast speed.
6. Ride two circles to the left: the first circle should be small and ridden at a slow speed; the second circle should be large and ridden at a fast speed.
7. Perform a left rollback beyond the far end marker.
8. Perform a right rollback beyond the entry end marker.
9. Stop past the center marker.
10. Let the horse settle; then in the approximate area of the stop do the spins.
